

Cento

façade access technology

Addenbrookes NHS Trust Hospital Cambridge

Project brief:

Provide façade access to an existing building without any structural alterations or disruption to hospital's services..

Solution:

2 x 20m reach crane type BMUs with articulated jibs, each system being installed over a weekend on to a freely laid non roof penetrating track system.

